1866 Immigrants[1]

DESERET NEWS Volume XV: 43 26 Sep 1866

J. D. Holladay's train of immigrants arrived on Tuesday, 25th inst. in good condition. They had a fine trip across the plains, so Br. Holladay reports, and made very good time, having left the Missouri on the 19 of of July. There were 8 deaths, in the company during the journey, the last one of whom died the night before reaching the city, and was interred after the arrival of the company....Elder Shepherd, clerk to the company, courteously furnished us with the following list of deaths: -- Rosamund Thorpe, aged 52, died Jul 22; Mathalerna Klosner, aged 28, died Aug. 4th; Grace Jacobs, age 42, died Aug, 8th; Elizabeth Oliver age 17, died Aug 18th; Lilly J. Lambourn, an infant, died Aug. 25th; Elizabeth Oliver aged 48, died Sep. 19th; John Adams, aged 48, died Sep. 24th; and was buried after the train arrived in the city. There was one birth on the trip across the plains.

DESERET NEWS Volume XV: 44 3 Oct 1866

Cap. D. Thompson's train of 84 wagons, and about 500 passengers, got into the city on Saturday morning. They had made excellent time by the way, all circumstances considered. There was a rapid disappearance of the passengers, shortly after the train arrived, their friends looking them up and taking them home. The following are the names of those who died belonging to this company: Annes S. Hodson, infant, Jul 28; Mary A.
